THE EVENING STAR.

Analogies are instituted between the late republican and present democratic situation. That there are analogous circumstances is admitted by everybody. It is easy, however, to overdo the analogy business, and this seems to be one of the cases where it is worked for more than it is worth. It is true that a large majust as the same class of men are against Mr. the others won't be missed. Cleveland. But there is a difference. In very many states the machine is altogether with the ex-President and no opposition of consequence be made as to members of Congress. There would seem to have been a combine at Minneobserved a strong "kicking" element in the Senate, due principally to the relations of that body to the executive department. The Sen- If you are not provided we have some more than orator entrenched in power by his long tenure and manner of election, with a share of the administrative work of the government probably out of all proportion to the expectations of the founders of the government, is a great factor in politics and thinks himself even greater than he is. Some of the coolest heads in the Federal Convention which framed the Constitution doubted whether it was wise to clothe the Senate with such extraordinary powers and prestige, and the capacity of the body for self-aggrandizement was even then foreseen by not a few minds of the first order. The proposition for electing the Senators by the people has met with large favor, but it is appreciated that the proposition to change the Constitution in this respect is one not likely to be adopted in the manner in which amendments are adopted under our system. The Senators are indisposed as a body to curtail any of the prestige of their house, and certainly unwilling to submit their election to the direct vote of the people. It is so much easier to procure a seat in the Senate from a legislature than from the people at large on a straight issue. Should the time ever come when another Federal Convention would be deemed necessary to recast the framework of our government, it is very certain that one of the changes made would be in the manner of electing both Presidents and Senators. The government would be popu-

THE STAR wishes to add to what it has said of the training schools in general a word about the colored training schools. These are in a very hopeful condition, as the exhibits yesterday showed. Skilled labor in the kitchen, workshop, mine and field is a public want that cannot be too well supplied under imaginable con-ditions of development. Large parts of our country are yet virgin soil and even in some of the original states of the Union thousands of acres are unimproved. In fact it may safely be stated that the labor system is yet to be organized, since so much remains to be done to perfect it in any quarter. The trades in certain sections have been pursued on a slip-shod plan, or without plan. The idea of educating eye and hand to perform manual labor in an intelligent way has not as yet taken hold, but the time is coming, south as well as north, when it will be considered a disgrace to slouch and potter. Heretofore in the old slave states, labor of all sorts has been done, so to speak, by "main strength and awkwardness." The cooking and other manual schools in cities where there is a considerable element of colored people are doing much to population and learn fast whatever they can be ced to undertake. Good cooks, sempstresses, house servants, drivers, porters, masons, carpenters, and in fact laborers in and out doors in an almost infinite number of employients are desired in almost infinite numbers The Washington public schools will supply, after awhile at least, a large part of the local demand, perhaps even more.

BRILLIANT IDEA!

Strange some one didn't think of it years ago. After burning up our food for twenty centuries along comes a preventative. Assestor Stove Plates, for placing over the hot stove, modifying the heat and preventing the food from burning. It really deserves to rank with the greatest discoveries of the age. Goes next to the flame. Nothing can burn on it. The coffee pot cannot boil over if placed on it. Bread can be toasted better upon it than by any other means. Think of the stirring it saves. It is imperishable and indestructible. Best yet; think of the small price—only 25c. each. Ask for Asbestoe Stove Plates.

A Cure WITHOUT MEDICINE. DR. H. SANCHE, ELECTROPOISE "VIC-(OXYGEN BY ABSORPTION.)

A CURE FOR DISEASE WITHOUT MEDICINE BY A SIMPLE PLAY UPON NATURE'S LAWS.

This wonderful means by which health is so outckly restered is the invention of Dr. Hannehe, an able Physician and Scientist, who has spent thity-five years of his life upoit, and for the past few yearshas placed it before the public as a speedy means by which he sick are healed.

To may this will be a new treatmen, and yet thousands of the above Electropoles have beel sold throughout the United Sates and hundreds here in vashington. The Electropole Wictory is a sure cure for Rheumatian, Insonnia, Vervousness, Indirection, Mairia, Constipation, Kidney and Liver disease, &c., and this fact is conclusively proven by TRUTH-FUL testimonnof RELIABLE witnesses. Wowill be glad to show the lars, number of Washington testmontals received, as well as those from reputable persons throughout the country. WASHINGTONIAN A

No. 235 2d Streets.e., Washiffston, June 9, 18th Miss LENMAN—At your request I gladly state that the value of Dr. Sanche's great scientific discovery, the Electropoles "Victory," has been signally demonstrated in the case of my eldest daughter. When she began its use she was lying prostrate with Anomia, which no tonic could overcome. She was a pale shadow, fading away before our ayes. She had been an invalid for seven years, had had the advice of twelve physicians, had used three different electrical machines and everything else that could be thought of, including troublesome journeys to country places, to no purpose whatever. She was perfectly helpless in almost every respect. The Electropoles "Victory," with no medicine whatsoever, has so far restored her that she can walk a considerable distance unassisted, can use her hands well, and can read and write once more, though her eyes are not yet verfectly strong. (Dr. Sanche does not promise speedy results in chronic cases.)

Her progress toward recovery has been steady, there has been no backward step. When I asked her this morning what I should say to you she repilled: "Tell Miss Lenman that I feel like a new being. It is as though a great magician had come into the house and said. Let there be health, and there was health.' Thank heaven for Dr. Sanche."

I should state that the beginning of my dauxhter's depilorable prostration was an injury thought to be slight a tirst, received while playing with other children nearly cirth years ago. The Electropoise she has used, with the exception of the first three incomes, for the past year is the one called by Dr. Banche "Victory."

With all manner of good wishes for the Doctor's prosperity and for your success as his agent in Washington I am, very sincerely, yours,

Electropoise Victory can only be obtained at the office of Miss Lula Lenman, who has had a wide and varied experience in the treatment of chronic cases. Having received her instructions from Dr. Sanche himself, the inventor of the Electropoise "Victory," she is prepared to explain and prove its many virtues. A book of explicit directions accompanies each instrument. BE SURE TO GET. THE ELECTROPOISE "VIC-Office hours—12 to 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. MISS LULA LENMAN.
